Little time as the actual reading took, my perusal of JE's chron was spread over much of the day. I hope that because of this I did not miss some of their great value.

I would suggest that you reread November 14, 1973, first and last grafs.

To me the first suggests the lady did not know when she was being indeminated and the second really means burial when it says abortion.

But consider the timing of the described abortions. Truly remarkable. The first coincides with indictments, the second with what everyone is now ignoring about what Dean said. Even he.

Somebody(ies) sure as hell expected bastards! HW 3/16/74